

Android

Course Overview

Learn to build mobile applications for the exciting new Android platform. When you purchase this product, you'll get access to the videos, slide presentations, and code examples associated with the online course, Developing Android Applications with Java, Part 1. This product will get you up to speed on the basics of Android development, including the Android SDK and the Eclipse IDE. As you learn, you'll build a simple Android app from start to finish. Android™ delivers a complete set of software for mobile devices: an operating system, middleware and key mobile applications. Android was built from the ground-up to enable developers to create compelling mobile applications that take full advantage of all a handset has to offer.

Course Details

Date/Time	Venue	Duration	Registration Fee	Course Fee
To be Scheduled	Central Office/ West Office	45 Hours	S$ 100	$800

Course Outline

- Android Introduction
- The Stack (Android)
- Quick Start
- Main Building Blocks
- Project Overview
- Android User Interface
- Preferences, File System, Options Menu
- Services
- Databases
- Lists and Adapters
- Broadcast Receivers
- Working with Resources
- Android Media API